FACTS

WHAT DOES MEMBERS COOPERATIVE CREDIT UNION DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security Number and credit history
- Account balances and account transactions
- Assets and checking account information

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Members Cooperative Credit Union chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does Members Cooperative Credit Union share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes –
such as to process your transactions, maintain your	Yes	No account(s), respond to court orders and legal	163	140
investigations, or report to credit bureaus
For our marketing purposes –	Yes	No
to offer our products and services to you		NO
For joint marketing with other financial companies	Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes –
information about your transactions and	No	We don't share experiences
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes –	No	We don't share information about your creditworthiness
For our affiliates to market to you	No	We don't share
For nonaffiliates to market to you	No	We don't share

Questions? Call (800) 296-8871 or go to www.membersccu.org

Who we are
Who is providing this notice?	Members Cooperative Credit Union

What we do
How does Members Cooperative Credit Union protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
	We do not permit companies with whom we share information to sell that information to other third parties.
How does Members Cooperative Credit	We collect personal information, for example, when you
Union collect my personal information?	 Open an account or give us your contact information
	 Deposit money or apply for a loan
	 Use your credit or debit card
	We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.
Why can't I limit all sharing?	Federal law gives you the right to limit only
	Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—
	information about your creditworthiness
	 Affiliates from using your information to market to you
	 Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
What happens when I limit sharing for an	Your choices will apply to everyone on your account – unless you account I hold jointly with someone else?	tell us otherwise.

Definitions
Affiliates	Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. Members Cooperative Credit Union's does not have affiliates
Nonaffiliates	Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. • Members Cooperative Credit Union does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you
Joint marketing	A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. Our joint marketing partners include insurance, investment, marketing, credit card and other financial services providers